

One-Full Day Nong Khiaw Nature & History Tour. Code: NK1001

Discover the natural beauty and fascinating history of Nong Khiaw on this one-day adventure combining mountain hiking, spectacular viewpoints, historical caves, and a visit to the local UXO Museum.

Start your day with an early morning hike to the famous Nong Khiaw Viewpoint, where breathtaking panoramic views of limestone mountains, winding rivers, and lush green valley await. Continue to Pha Kuang Cave, a historic shelter during the Indochina War, before visiting the local UXO Museum to learn about the Secret War in Laos and its lasting impact on local communities.

This tour offers a memorable combination of outdoor adventure, natural scenery, and cultural and historical discovery.

Tour Itinerary

Morning: Nong Khiaw Viewpoint – Sunrise & Sea of Clouds

Meet your local guide at your guesthouse/hotel at 8:00 a.m. in the morning and begin the hike to the famous Nong Khiaw Viewpoint. The trail takes approximately one hour round trip, depending on your walking pace and trail conditions.

As you climb toward the viewpoint, enjoy the fresh mountain air and beautiful natural surroundings. Upon reaching the top, you will be rewarded with unforgettable panoramic views across the Nam Ou River, dramatic limestone mountain peaks, and lush green valley surrounding Nong Khiaw.

During the cool season, particularly in the early morning, you may have the opportunity to witness a magical sea of clouds floating between the mountain peaks, creating a truly memorable landscape and excellent photography opportunities.

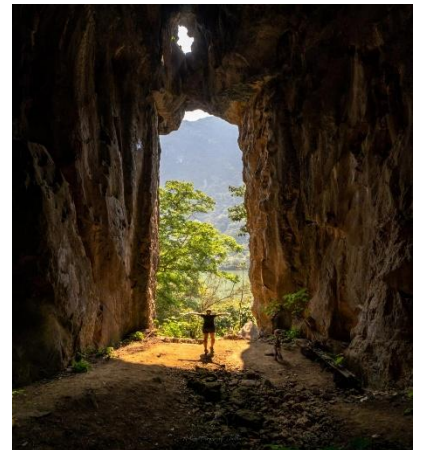

After spending time enjoying the scenery and taking photographs, descend the mountain with your guide.

Late Morning: Pha Kuang Cave – Historical Discovery

After descending from the viewpoint, continue to Pha Kuang Cave, a historically significant cave that was once used as a shelter by local people during the Indochina War.

Explore the cave and learn from your guide about its historical background and the experiences of local communities during the wartime period.

This visit provides a deeper understanding of the region's past and the importance of caves as places of refuge during the conflict.

Afternoon: Local UXO Museum – The Secret War in Laos

Later, travel by private tuk-tuk to visit the local UXO (Unexploded Ordnance) Museum.

At the museum, you will learn about the history of the Secret War in Laos, the extensive bombing of the country, and the continuing impact of unexploded ordnance on local communities.

Discover how unexploded bombs affect people's daily lives, farming, and development, and learn about ongoing efforts to raise awareness and improve safety.

Your guide will help explain the historical context and connect the museum exhibits with the experiences of communities in Northern Laos.

The best 2 Days Jungle Trek Nong Khiaw, visit Tad Mok Waterfall, Muang Ngoi & Houidoon Jungle Adventure: Code: NK2001

what you will do on tour: Boat Trip - Jungle Trekking - Waterfall - Village Homestay - Kayaking

Discover the natural beauty and traditional lifestyle of Northern Laos on this two-day adventure combining a scenic boat trip along the Nam Ou River, jungle trekking, a refreshing waterfall, traditional villages, and an unforgettable kayaking experience.

Travel through spectacular limestone mountain landscapes, explore the peaceful riverside town of Muang Ngoi, and spend a night in Sobchaem village, famous for its traditional weaving. On the second day, venture into the forested mountains of Houidoon before returning to Nong Khiaw by boat and kayak.

Day 1: Boat Ride, Tad Mok Waterfall, Muang Ngoi & Sobchaem Village

Meet your local guide at your guesthouse/hotel at 8:00 a.m. in the morning in Nong Khiaw. After a short introduction and preparation for the journey, we will board a traditional local boat and travel upriver along the beautiful Nam Ou River, one of the major rivers of Laos.

Enjoy approximately 40 minutes of scenic boating, passing towering limestone mountains, lush green forests, and peaceful riverside landscapes. Along the way, you will have opportunities to admire the spectacular scenery and observe local life along the riverbanks.

Tad Mok Waterfall – Jungle Trekking & Swimming

Upon reaching the riverside landing point, we will get off the boat and begin a short jungle trek to Tad Mok Waterfall. The walk takes approximately one hour through beautiful natural surroundings, with forest trails, tropical vegetation, and the sounds of the jungle accompanying us along the way.

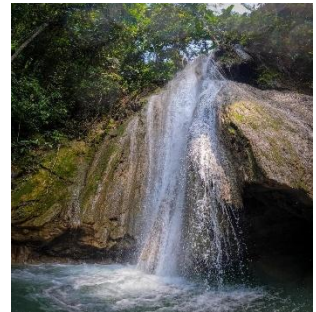

When we arrive at the waterfall, you will have time to relax, enjoy the peaceful atmosphere, and swim in the refreshing natural pool surrounded by the jungle. This is a wonderful opportunity to cool off and enjoy the natural beauty of Northern Laos.

After spending some relaxing time at the waterfall, we will trek back to the boat and continue our river journey.

Visit the Historic Cave & Muang Ngoi Viewpoint

Our next stop is a historic cave, where you can explore a fascinating part of the region's history and learn from your guide about its significance to local communities.

After the cave visit, we continue upriver to Muang Ngoi, a small and peaceful riverside town surrounded by dramatic limestone mountains.

Here, we will take a walk up to the local viewpoint. From the top, enjoy magnificent panoramic views of Muang Ngoi, the Nam Ou River, surrounding mountain ranges, and the beautiful green valley below. It is an excellent place to take photographs and appreciate the untouched scenery of Northern Laos.

After enjoying the viewpoint, we will explore the small, quiet town of Muang Ngoi, walking through its peaceful streets and discovering the relaxed lifestyle of this remote riverside community.

Sobchaem Village – Traditional Weaving & Homestay

In the afternoon, we will continue upriver to Sobchaem village, a traditional community well known for its beautiful handmade woven products.

Almost every family in the village has a traditional weaving loom, and weaving remains an important part of daily life and local culture. During our visit, you will have the opportunity to observe local women weaving traditional fabrics, learn about their techniques, and discover how these handmade products are created.

visit,

Sobchaem is also a peaceful place to experience authentic village life beside the Nam Ou River.

In the evening, settle into a simple local family homestay, enjoy a traditional home-cooked dinner, and spend time relaxing with your hosts.

Rest and recharge for the following day's jungle trekking adventure.

- Meals: Lunch and dinner (Local food)
- Overnight: Local family homestay in Sobchaem village
- Approximately tour: between 4 and 5 hours; trekking level: moderate

Day 2: Houidoon Jungle Trek & Sunset Kayaking to Nong Khiaw Wake up to the peaceful atmosphere of Sobchaem village and enjoy breakfast with your local hosts. After breakfast, prepare for the next part of your adventure: a jungle trek through the beautiful natural landscapes of Houidoon.

- Houidoon Jungle Trekking – Forests, Limestone Mountains & Farmland

Our trekking route takes us through the Houidoon area, where approximately 70% of the trail is shaded by forest canopy, providing a pleasant environment for walking.

During the trek, you will pass through a variety of landscapes, including limestone mountain formations, local farmland, tropical vegetation, and different types of forest.

Along the way, your guide will introduce you to the surrounding environment and explain aspects of local farming, forest plants, and the relationship between the local communities and their natural surroundings.

The trail offers a wonderful opportunity to experience the quieter side of Northern Laos, away from the main tourist routes. Enjoy the fresh mountain air, beautiful scenery, and peaceful atmosphere as we make our way through the countryside.

The trek takes approximately four hours, depending on walking speed, weather, and trail conditions.

- Boat Ride & Kayaking Back to Nong Khiaw

After completing the jungle trek, we will arrive at the bank of the Nam Ou River, where our boat will be waiting.

Board the boat and enjoy a scenic ride back along the river to the designated riverside beach, surrounded by impressive limestone mountains and beautiful natural scenery.

Upon arrival, we will prepare for the final activity of our adventure: kayaking along the Nam Ou River back toward Nong Khiaw.

Paddle at a relaxed pace through the spectacular river landscape, enjoying the fresh air, towering limestone cliffs, and peaceful surroundings. As the afternoon draws to a close, the changing light and sunset over the mountains create a memorable ending to your two-day adventure.

Arrive back in Nong Khiaw in the late afternoon or around sunset, concluding your jungle trekking, village, and river adventure.
