One-Day Private Car Tour in Muang Xay & Muang La. Code: 1001

Overview: Discover the cultural richness and natural beauty of northern Laos on this one-day private tour. Travel by car through scenic countryside, visit ethnic villages, and experience traditional ways of life that have been preserved for generations.

Itinerary

After breakfast, meet your guide at your guesthouse or hotel in Muang Xay Town at 8:30 AM. Begin your day with a visit to the local morning market, where you will purchase drinking water and fresh local food for your picnic lunch.

From there, depart the town and drive into the surrounding countryside to visit a Tai Lue (Thai Leu) ethnic village. Spend time exploring the village and interacting with the locals to gain insight into their daily lives and traditions. You will have the opportunity to observe various traditional activities such as: beekeeping, hand-weaving fabrics, crafting bamboo baskets used for steaming sticky rice, distilling rice whiskey

Continue your journey to a nearby Khmu ethnic village, where you can walk around and learn more about rural life. Depending on the season, you may see rice, bean and tobacco fields and learn about the traditional tobacco production process (from late October to April). You will also visit a unique tobacco drying house made from straw and clay.

After exploring both villages, continue driving to Muang La, a peaceful area known for its natural surroundings. Here, you will:

- Visit the natural hot springs, where you can relax and enjoy the serene environment.
- Learn about traditional salt production, including the process of extracting salt from nearby underground sources.

Around midday, you will stop at a scenic location to enjoy your picnic lunch and in the afternoon, return to Muang Xay Town by private car, with a driving time of approximately 30–45 minutes.

Duration: Approximately 4–5 hours

2-Day / 1-Night Nature Adventure at Phou Ya Kha. Code:2002

Jungle walks, crystal-clear streams, breathtaking mountain views, and unforgettable moments in the heart of Northern Laos.

Escape the busy world and discover the untouched beauty of Phou Ya Kha, one of Oudomxay's hidden natural treasures. This two-day adventure takes you through dense forests, peaceful mountain streams, fascinating rock formations, and panoramic viewpoints. Spend a night at nearly 1,800 meters high above sea level, surrounded by cool mountain air and the sounds of nature.

Day 1 – Into the Jungle & Along the Mountain Stream

8:30 AM – Departure from Xay Town

Your adventure begins with a scenic 45-minute or 1 hour drive from Xay Town to Ban Lak 32, a small rural village at the foot of Phou Ya Kha. Along the way, stop at a lively local market where you can experience everyday village life, browse fresh produce, and pick up some local snacks for the journey.

- Jungle Trek Begins

From Ban Lak 32, start trekking through the lush tropical forest. Follow shaded jungle trails beneath towering trees while listening to birds singing, insects calling, and the soothing sound of flowing streams.

Your experienced local guide will introduce you to the rich biodiversity of the forest, pointing out medicinal plants, edible herbs, wild flowers, and explaining how local communities have traditionally used these natural resources for generations.

- Picnic Lunch Beside a Mountain Stream

After a rewarding hike, arrive at a beautiful crystal-clear mountain stream. Relax in the cool shade, dip your feet in the refreshing water, and enjoy a freshly prepared local picnic lunch surrounded by peaceful jungle scenery.

- Continue Exploring the Wilderness

The afternoon trek leads deeper into the untouched forest. Along the trail you'll discover unusual rock formations naturally shaped over thousands of years. Some resemble animals, while others appear to have mystical symbols carved by nature. Your guide will also share local legends and stories connected with these fascinating landmarks.

- Arrive at Phou Ya Kha Campsite (1,800m)

Reach the mountain campsite in the late afternoon. Settle into your comfortable tent or simple eco-lodge (depending on your chosen accommodation). Take time to relax, breathe in the fresh mountain air, and admire the peaceful surroundings.

- Dinner Under the Stars

As evening falls, enjoy a delicious home-style Lao dinner prepared with fresh local ingredients. Afterwards, gather around a campfire beneath a sky full of stars, sharing stories while enjoying the cool mountain atmosphere before spending a restful night in nature.

Approximately: 4-5 hours walk, 45 minutes-1-hour drive.

Day 2 – Sunrise Above the Mountains

Sunrise Experience

Wake early to witness one of the highlights of the trip. Watch the sunrise slowly illuminate the mountain ranges as morning mist drifts through the valleys below. The peaceful scenery creates a truly unforgettable moment and offers fantastic photography opportunities.

- Breakfast with Panoramic Views

Enjoy a freshly prepared breakfast accompanied by local coffee or tea while taking in spectacular panoramic views across the Phou Ya Kha mountains.

- Explore Viewpoints & Rock Formations

After breakfast, spend time exploring more of the mountain's natural attractions. Visit scenic viewpoints overlooking endless forests, admire unique rock formations shaped like animals, and enjoy free time to relax, take photographs, or simply appreciate the tranquility of this untouched landscape.

- Trek Back to Ban Lak 32

Begin your descent through the forest, following a different perspective of the same beautiful trails before arriving back at Ban Lak 32 village and have lunch there before beginning the drive back.

- Return to Xay Town

Arrive back in Xay Town during the afternoon, bringing home wonderful memories of an authentic mountain adventure in one of Northern Laos' most beautiful natural areas.

Approximately: 4-5 hours walk, 45 minutes-1-hour drive.

• Trek starts: At 8:30am from Town

The best 3-Day Jungle Survival Trek & Remote Khmu Village Homestay

explore the Deep Jungle, Camp in the Forest & Experience Authentic Local Life in Muang Xay, (Oudomxay), Northern Laos

Tour Code: MX3002

Tour Overview

Are you ready for an unforgettable adventure in the heart of Northern Laos?

Our 3-Day Jungle Survival Trek offers a unique opportunity to explore the deep jungle, camp overnight in the forest, and experience the traditional lifestyle of the Khmu ethnic people in a remote mountain village.

This challenging trekking adventure takes you through beautiful forests, across rivers, up and down mountain trails, and through peaceful natural landscapes far from the usual tourist routes. Along the way, you will learn basic jungle survival skills from your local guide, including how to identify edible plants, collect vegetables from the forest, catch fish, frogs, and crabs, and set simple traps to catch small animals where legally and safely permitted.

You will also learn how to build a small jungle shelter using banana leaves and other natural materials, make bamboo cups and bowls, prepare food in bamboo, boil water, and make natural herbal tea.

On the first night, you will help your guide build a simple shelter, collect firewood, prepare dinner, and sleep at a jungle campsite surrounded by nature. After dinner, you can join your guide for a nighttime walk to look for frogs and crabs using a flashlight.

Wake up to the beautiful sounds of birds and other forest wildlife before continuing your adventure through the jungle toward a remote Khmu ethnic village. Here, you will experience local hospitality, enjoy traditional food, explore village life, and spend the night with a local family.

This tour is ideal for adventurous travelers who enjoy challenging hikes, outdoor activities, camping, and authentic cultural experiences.

More than just a trek, this is an opportunity to learn practical outdoor skills, challenge yourself, and experience the natural and cultural beauty of Northern Laos.

Note: This tour needs 1,2,3 local guides (depends on clients' group) who will be assistants on tour

Day 1: Muang Xay – Namon Village – Jungle Trekking & Camping

Meals: Lunch and Dinner

Meet your local guide at 8:30 a.m. at your hotel/guesthouse in Muang Xay Town. Travel by private car or Tuk Tuk to Namon Village, the starting point of your jungle adventure. The journey takes approximately 25–30 minutes.

Upon arrival, begin trekking through rice paddies, cornfields, and local farmland before entering the jungle. Follow forest trails up and down the hills while enjoying the peaceful surroundings and learning about the local environment from your guide.

Around lunchtime, stop at a suitable spot in the forest to prepare and enjoy a picnic. Your guide will demonstrate how to use large green leaves as a natural serving surface for your meal.

After lunch, continue trekking deeper into the forest until approximately 2:00–3:00 p.m., when you will look for a suitable campsite near a water source.

Jungle Camping & Survival Activities

Once you arrive at the campsite, work together with your guide to build a simple shelter using banana leaves and other natural materials or bring tents. Prepare a sleeping area and learn how to make your campsite comfortable using available resources.

Next, collect firewood and prepare a fire for cooking. Depending on the season and local conditions, you may join your guide in collecting edible forest vegetables, catching fish, and searching for crabs.

Learn how to prepare your ingredients and cook food using bamboo or a cooking pot when necessary. You may also learn how to make simple bamboo utensils and prepare boiled water or natural tea.

Before evening, your guide can demonstrate how to set simple traps for small animals, subject to local laws and wildlife conservation practices.

Enjoy dinner around the campfire while listening to the sounds of the forest.

After dinner, you can join your guide for an optional nighttime walk lasting approximately 30 minutes to 2 hours to look for frogs and crabs using a flashlight. The duration depends on your interests, the weather, and local conditions.

Return to the campsite to rest and spend your first night in the jungle, surrounded by the sights and sounds of nature.

Approximate duration:

- Transfer: 25–30 minutes; Trekking: 4–5 hours

- Overnight: Jungle campsite

- Trekking level: Moderate to difficult

Day 2: Jungle Campsite – Deep Jungle Trekking – Namchong Khmu Village

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Wake up early and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere of the jungle. After breakfast, check the simple traps set the previous evening with your guide, where permitted, and learn about responsible ways of interacting with the forest environment.

Pack your belongings and continue trekking through the deep jungle.

Today's route takes you along rivers, through young forest, and up and down mountain trails. You will also encounter a challenging section near a small waterfall, where careful movement and assistance from your guide may be necessary.

The trail reaches approximately 1,000 meters above sea level, offering beautiful views of the surrounding mountains and forest landscapes.

Along the way, learn more about the natural resources used by local communities. Depending on the season, you may collect edible vegetables, look for crabs, and learn how to prepare simple meals using bamboo and other natural materials.

Stop for a picnic lunch in the forest. Your guide can demonstrate how to make simple bamboo bowls and spoons from banana leaves for an authentic outdoor dining experience.

After lunch, continue your trek toward Namchong Village, a remote Khmu ethnic community nestled in the mountains.

Upon arrival, explore the village and learn about the daily lives, traditions, and culture of the Khmu people. Meet local villagers, observe their traditional way of life, and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere of this rural community.

In the evening, share a traditional home-cooked meal with your host family and experience the warmth of local hospitality.

Spend the night in a basic room at a local family home.

Approximate duration:

- Trekking: 4–5 hours

- Overnight: simple Khmu family homestay

Trekking level: Difficult and moderate.

Day 3: Namchong Khmu Ethnic Village – Namhaeng Village – Muang Xay

5-Day Trekking Adventure in Muang Xay. Code: 5000

Experience an exciting 3-day trekking adventure through young forests, bush landscapes, and scenic mountain ridges. This journey offers a perfect balance of uphill and downhill hiking, with rewarding panoramic viewpoints overlooking valleys and rural countryside.

Please note: the villages visited are very remote, with no electricity, no toilets, and no running water, offering a truly authentic local experience.

Day 1: Muang Xay – Trekking Point – Huay Char Village – Mokmeo Village (_/L/D)

After breakfast, meet your guide at your guesthouse or our office at 8:30 AM. Begin your day with a visit to the local morning market to purchase fresh ingredients for your picnic lunch and drinking water.

A short 15–20-minute drive by private car or Tuk Tuk brings you to the trekking starting point. From here, the hike begins at a lower elevation, gradually ascending toward Mokmeo Village. Along the way, you will pass through young forest, bushland, and cultivated farmland used by local communities.

The trail follows mountain ridges with a mix of uphill and downhill sections. As you gain elevation, enjoy increasingly beautiful and open views of the surrounding countryside, including valleys and distant mountains. The landscape reflects local agricultural life, with corn fields and small-scale cattle farming.

In the late afternoon, arrive at Mokmeo Village, where you will stay overnight with a local family. This village is one of the best viewpoints in the area, offering wide panoramic scenery of mountains, valleys, and nearby lakes. Enjoy a traditional Lao dinner and experience the warm hospitality of the villagers.
